

B-24's of the 484th Bomb Group on their way north on a bombing mission probably in the Summer or Fall of 1944. Note that there are 24 flak bursts in this photo indicating many batteries are firing. Judging from the shape of the flak bursts the gun positions are ahead of the bombers at angles to the horizon of 18 to 60 degrees. King Beach photo 827 Sq.

461st & 484th Bomb Groups Association
1122 Ysabel St
Redondo Beach, CA 90277

Address Correction Requested
Forwarding and Return Postage
Guaranteed

NON PROFIT ORG
US POSTAGE
PAID
TORRANCE, CA
PERMIT NO 259