

The Last Mission

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave When life is done.*

* Indicates Family members. Betty Schroeder, the wife of Claude Schroeder, 827 Sq., who made those hand knitted items (name tags and dieter's flip flops) as gifts for our members at the reunions, passed away earlier this year after succumbing to cancer. She had attended every reunion with Claude.
